3 JOHNS AND JUDE

For the past three years, our Sunday morning scriptures have come from the Narrative Lectionary series. This is a cycle of readings that begins in the fall with the book of Genesis and then continues throughout the Old Testament until arriving at the birth of Jesus in December for the Advent and Christmas seasons. (Continued on page 2)

SECRET PRAYER PALS

By Grace Autio

We will have our secret pals again this year with a few changes. Patty Seredinski and Sue Vance are going to do the organizing this year. A big "thank you" to them. You can sign up May 25th and June 1st, and begin drawing names June 8th and finish by the 15th of June.

Pat has thought of a simple pals that truly will be secret, whom they have drawn.

way to have a record of the secret in the event someone forgets

We emphasize again, while aren't the main focus of what prayer, intercessory prayer, prayer for family, whatever you know that person needs. Also be sure to specifically list your prayer concerns. A card to let them know you are praying is very helpful. However don't include your return address on the envelope. ( it has been done) gifts are perfectly acceptable, they the secret pals are about. It's about

Praying for each other is a vital part of our congregation, secret pals is one way, among several to remind people to pray. (Continued on page 3)

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION & YOUTH & FAMILY MINISTRY

By Liz Thom

Past Items:

1. A member purchased a popcorn maker for our church use. The purchase is greatly appreciated.
2. The Easter egg hunt during Easter Breakfast was a success and we will plan to have it again next year.
3. Lonna Hutchinson, Council member, has offered to promote Bible Camp for our youth. Camp Patmos, Hackensack, is the site for our Bible Camp. Elementary, middle and high school camps are in July. Please contact Lonna for more information. HLCW will pay half the cost.

Future plans:

1. Vacation Bible School will be ecumenical with all 5 churches participating. Judy Ario is coordinating the event. VBS will be held June 23-26, 2014 at the Fair Building for school-aged youth. If you are able to help, please contact Pastor Carl or Judy directly.
2. New this year: Preschool VBS will be offered during the same week and hours as regular VBS but will be at Hope Lutheran Church so the youth area and nursery can be utilized. Carolyn Hosking will be the teacher and a babysitting service for children younger than 3 years old will be available for parents who have younger children. Contact Pastor Carl or Carolyn if you are able to help.
3. Movie Night during Catfish Festival: 6:00 pm at the Fair Building. Invite your friends and neighbors to join us! Church Council members will lead the program with Jill Fries and Jen Myles assisting. Watch for posters and further information. In addition to the general audience movie, we are considering showing a Veggie Tales movie for our "little & big" kids, too.
4. Summer Sunday School: Jen Myles and Carolyn Hosking will be continuing our Sunday School program through the summer during the 9:30 church service, except on holiday weekends. Please invite summer guests to attend as well as our own members. The summer lessons are water-themed.
5. Confirmation classes: Pastor Carl recommends a 3-year program of study so more Bible education and study about Martin Luther and our Lutheran heritage can be taught. When students complete the requirements, confirmation will take place.
6. Mentors for new member families: We thought it would be a good idea to have current members become mentors for new people who are interested in attending Hope Lutheran to help them get acquainted with other people in our church and the various activities and missions of Hope Lutheran.

Next meeting is Sunday, August 10, 2014 during Fellowship Hour.

Word From Pastor Carl- “3 JOHNS AND JUDE”

Like other cycles of reading used in the past, after Christmas, the Bible readings move to the beginning days of Jesus’ ministry and teaching. This year, the selections of Jesus’ ministry were taken from the Gospel of John. Then during Lent, the readings point to Jesus’ predictions of his death until we remember his betrayal and crucifixion during Holy Week. In the weeks following Christ’s resurrection at Easter, we recall Jesus’ reappearance to his disciples before his Ascension. And finally at Pentecost, the church remembers the sending of the Holy Spirit to empower the disciples for ministry.

In the weeks following Pentecost, unlike the recent past where the readings return to Jesus’ parables and other teachers, the Narrative Lectionary keeps moving through the final books of the Bible.

In the summer of 2011, after Pentecost, we continued further through the book of Acts covering almost every chapter. It was an interesting examination as one reads how the Holy Spirit moved in such powerful ways for the spread of the Gospel. Then in the summer of 2012, one chapter at a time, we looked at the Book of Revelation. This was also a fascinating experience to examine the many confusing symbols and signs that have been both a warning and an encouragement to the church for many centuries. Last summer, the preaching texts were based off of the thirteen chapters of the book of Hebrews. Reading Hebrews reinforces our faith in how Christ’s sacrifice on the cross, by the shedding of his blood, brings reconciliation to the Father.

For the summer of 2014, we are going to think on 1st John, 2nd John, 3rd John and Jude. Again, like the ones that we have looked at in previous summers, these are also books that we do not hear as much for public worship other than our Confession of Sin which comes from 1 John.

Part of the reason that these works are not otherwise referenced frequently is because of their small size. The books of 2nd John, 3rd John and Jude are only one chapter long. Because of their brevity, they are only known by their verse.

As we begin this series, may God teach us many new things as we deepen in our faith as we hear more of God’s promises from His Word.

HLCW MEETING MONDAY, MAY 19, 2014

The meeting opened at 10:00 a.m. with nine members present. President Grace Autio presided.

Grace noted that Naomi Circle will be in charge of the next funeral.

Naomi will serve the refreshments downstairs following Baccalaureate services on May 28. Bars will be served. Five members volunteered to bring bars.

A work day is needed in June to clean areas not normally cleaned at routine cleaning times, like cupboards, windows, etc. It was decided to set the day for Thursday, June 12 at 9:00 a.m. It will be announced in church and volunteers will be encouraged, as both men and ladies are needed.

Several members of the congregation want to continue Secret Prayer Pals, so it should be continued, as many appreciate the prayers. Pat Seredinski and Sue Vance have offered to make the list and conduct the drawings. This will be done in the next week or so.
