

PRAYERS FOR WEEK OF MARCH 29,2020

Monday: O Heavenly Father, I feel so full of worries in days like this. At night I toss and turn thinking of all our present problems. I can't solve them and troubles that haven't even happened yet. Calm my heart, Lord. Soothe my soul. Quiet my mind and give me your peace.

Tuesday: Dear Jesus. I don't want to ask you this. Honestly, I am afraid of what your answer might be. But I am going to ask you anyway. Lord whom do you need me to speak to today? Who needs to hear the good news of all that you have done, Jesus? Use me to spread that news boldly.

Wednesday: Dearest Jesus I hold out my empty hands to You and offer all I have, all I am, all I know, all I want and all I can't. Take me and use me for your kingdom. Shape me into the useful instrument for your purposes you created me to be.

Thursday: Heavenly Father how many times have I turned away from you? How many times have I forgotten to read your word? How many times have I been too busy to pray? You have given me all kinds of extra time now to do these things. Yet every time I come back. You accept me and listen to me. Thank you, Lord, for your everlasting mercy.

Friday: Dear Jesus I was reading your story today and I realize that I have not humbled myself. I have not been seeking your face and I have not turned away from my wickedness. I am praying to you now to say I will do these things Lord. Then please forgive me.

Saturday: Dear Father, You never tire of listening to the prayers of your children. Thank you for calling me to be one of them. And yet I am exhausted after just one day of hearing others' needs and wants and complaints. Help me to persevere to be a blessing to others. Fill me with Your strength to do your will as a child of God.

Sunday: Dear God what you have done throughout thousands of years of history just amazes me. Noah, Moses, Abraham, your people Israel. You always rescued them from their trials. Your constant love is clear to see how you will always rescue those you love. You will rescue us from this viral COVID 19, but will we turn to you or turn away from you again. When our faith is weak let me remember your strength through all the ages.
