

PRAYERS FOR WEEK OF MAY 17 to May 23, 2020

Sunday: Dear Jesus, redeemer of our souls, you are our salvation. Your sacrifice was a sign of your love. Please forgive us when we fail to remember your purpose for our lives. May we learn to trust your promises and not our feelings. Help us to always trust you. Amen.

Monday: Heavenly Father, you are faithful and true. You keep your promises forever. We sinners left to our own ways waver and are lost. Forgive us Father. Help us today to focus on you and encourage one another in love and good deeds. Amen.

Tuesday: Dear Jesus, you are the only way to the Father. Your way is narrow and deep. Without you to guide us, the way is shallow and wide, and we become lost. Empower us today to put aside our way and follow you wherever you will lead us. Amen.

Wednesday: Dear Lord, we are a hurt nation, an angry nation struggling to maintain its values while still dealing firmly with those who hate us. Guide our nations' leaders during these difficult times. We place our trust in you and pray for your guidance to get us through safely, and in your peace. Amen.

Thursday: Dear Jesus, help me to remember you on this your Ascension Day. Remind me to prepare and be ready for your return. You will rescue me from the evil in this world and bring me home with you. Amen.

Friday: Heavenly Father, help me to have patience, knowing my season is coming according to your timetable. I trust with your help every fruit I will bear will produce good in your kingdom. Amen.

Saturday: Father, I feel so worn-out. Help me to sleep well at night so that I will have energy during the day to carry-out what you want me to do. If it be your will, lighten my load so I can have a better balance between my life, work and ministry you have called me to do. Replenish me as I rest in your presence. Amen.

Lessons for next Sunday May 17, 2020:

Acts 1:12-26

Psalm 68:1-10

I Peter 4:12-19

John 17:1-11