

Prayers for the Week of May 31 to June 6

Sunday: Holy Spirit, I thank you for being my advocate and living in me. In spite of my sin, you still are in relationship with me. I ask for your Holy Spirit Power in my life to do God's will and purpose for my life. Help me to reach out to others in love and to tell them the good news of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Monday: Dear Lord, I ask you to be with me on those days I hear difficult news and face new challenges. Give me your strength and grace to be honest and loving with other people, especially when it is hard. Let me be led by your will to do your calling on my life. Amen.

Tuesday: Faithful Lord, it seems like pestilence and evil surround me. The evil breeds confusion and fear. Help me to remember your strong words that I am in your hands, safe and shielded by your love always. Amen.

Wednesday: Thank you Father for sending your angels to watch over me. It is comforting to know you have prepared a place for me with you. My life is only temporarily here on my journey to your kingdom and my heavenly home. Keep me from harm and give me your strength to be free from fear as I proceed through this day. Amen.

Thursday: Dear Father. sometimes I feel like you don't even notice me. My struggles in life make it hard for me to see you. But I know you are there, and you have promised me eternal life and unending joy with you. Help me always to see you and trust in your promises to relieve my pain and burdens. Amen.

Friday: Dear God your faith in me is so much greater than my faith in you. Mine is like a wind-blown leaf, flitting this way and that but you are strong, upright and steady even when I falter you are there for me. May your Holy Spirit give me strength to trust in you always to care for me and rejoice that you have called me to be your child. Amen.

Saturday: Dear Father, knowing you as a welcoming Father with open arms to receive me encourages me daily to come to you. You always embrace me, with loving eyes and not condemning eyes even though I have sinned. You still invite me to restoration and eternal life with you. May your face continue to shine on me and keep me in your grace. Amen.
